

EAGLEONE CARD

The University of Mary Washington EagleOne Identification Card is the only card a student needs at the University. The card acts as a form of identification allowing access to the library, gymnasium, residence halls, and other University buildings and activities. It contains the students' meal plan and flex dollar information for University food service. It is also a debit card. Money may be added in the form of EagleOne Dollars, which can then be debited from the balance for use in the University Bookstore, the Eagle's Nest, dining in the Cedric Rucker University Center, Panera Bread (in the University Center), Katora Coffee at the Hurley Convergence Center, UMW Health Center, laundry, vending, University Tennis Center, theatre productions, pay-to-print and cloud printing, Copy Center, Post Office, and other locations on campus. Fredericksburg area merchants also accept the EagleOne card as payment. A list of participating merchants (<https://adminfinance.umw.edu/eagleone/vending-off-campus/eagleone-off-campus-2/>) is available. EagleOne cardholders may check their account balances, deposit funds, and download statements at EagleOne eAccounts (<https://eagleone-sp.transactcampus.com/eAccounts/AnonymousHome.aspx>).
