

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN ELEMENTARY EDUCATION PROGRAM

---

This program is no longer accepting any new students.

Students who enrolled as of the spring 2020 semester will be able to complete the program requirements and earn the degree. The program will be discontinued after all students currently enrolled in it have completed their students or have voluntarily discontinued enrollment.

Students interested in elementary education as a program of student should refer instead to the new Bachelor of Science in Education degree program.