

CONTINUING AT THE UNIVERSITY

---

Non-attendance does not cancel registration and may result in failing grades and financial obligations to the University. Registration must be cancelled prior to the first day of class in order to avoid these consequences. Students planning to discontinue attendance at the University should follow the procedures outlined under the "Leave of Absence" or "Withdrawing from the University" policies, as appropriate.