UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH (URES)

URES 000 - Undergraduate Research and Creativity Experience (0 Credits)
Permission of the instructor and the department. An opportunity to engage in faculty-supervised or approved research or creative work. A minimum of 42 hours of lab, field, library, archive, studio, or other discipline-appropriate work, along with a final report or presentation. Non-credit bearing.

URES 197 - Undergraduate Research (1-3 Credits)
Permission of the instructor and the Department. Directed research with a faculty member. Open to all students, particularly first- and second year students. Variable credit – requires 3 hours of work per week per credit hour. May be repeated up to 6 credits. May require a minimum GPA or course prerequisite for eligibility.