

BSN COMPLETION DEGREE (NURSING)

Janet M. Atarathi-Dugan, Director of the Bachelor of Science in Nursing Completion Program

The Bachelor of Nursing (BSN) degree is a completion program for registered nurses. The BSN Completion Program meets the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN) Essentials of a Baccalaureate Education for Profession Practice. Upon completion of the BSN degree, nurses are able to practice as a member of a profession and assume the roles of provider, designer, manager, and coordinator of care in a healthcare system of growing complexity.

The baccalaureate degree in nursing at the University of Mary Washington is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (<https://www.aacnnursing.org/CCNE/>).

Additional details about program requirements, regulations, and courses are offered in the Nursing Degree Completion Program (<https://catalog.umw.edu/undergraduate/majors/nursing-bsn-completion-program-only/>) section of this Catalog.
